Angel Hair with Shrimp, Feta and Tomatoes

This is a delicious and very quick pasta dish. There's very little prep work involved and it cooks very quickly. The flavors of the shrimp, feta, tomatoes and lemon juice really complement each other well.

Prep time: 10 minutes

Cooking time: 10 minutes

Time Saving Tips: Peeling shrimp is a bit tedious, so if you can buy your shrimp already peeled, go for it. If not, if you peeled them the night before or in the morning, it would speed up meal preparation. You could also use bottled, minced garlic.

Makes: 4 servings

Ingredients

2 teaspoons olive oil	3 cloves garlic, minced
1/4 cup white wine	2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon oregano, dried	1 pound shrimp large (peeled and deveined)
2 ounces feta cheese, crumbled	2 tablespoons dried parsley
8 ounces angel hair pasta, cooked	2 (14 1/2-ounce) cans stewed tomatoes, petite diced, drained

Directions

1. Heat olive oil in large nonstick skillet. Add garlic; cook about 2-3 minutes until softened.
2. Add wine, lemon juice, tomatoes, oregano and shrimp. Cover and simmer until shrimp are cooked, about 4-5 minutes.
3. Remove from heat; stir in feta.
4. Serve over cooked noodles; garnish with parsley.

Suggested Side Dishes

Green salad
French or italian bread

If you're looking for a 'splurge' that won't make you feel guilty, this is the recipe to try! You even get great amounts of Vitamins A and C and calcium. It's rich, creamy and delicious. You could also add chicken or seafood (shrimp, scallops, salmon, crab, lobster, etc.) to this recipe and it would be fantastic.

Prep time: 10 minutes

Cooking time: 17 minutes

Time Saving Tips: Look for sliced mushrooms, broccoli and red bell pepper (salad bar, perhaps). Use fresh packaged pasta to cut down on cooking time. Bottled, minced garlic is an acceptable substitute for fresh.

Makes: 4 servings

Ingredients

8 ounces uncooked fettuccine pasta	1 cup broccoli florets
1 cup sliced mushrooms	1 cup red bell pepper slices
2 teaspoons butter	2 cloves minced garlic
1 tablespoon all-purpose flour	1 1/4 cups fat-free milk
Parmesan cheese	2 ounces light cream cheese (about 1/4 cup)
Salt and pepper	2 ounces crumbled gorgonzola cheese (about 1/2 cup)

Directions

1. Cook pasta according to package directions.
2. Steam vegetables until tender-crisp.
3. Melt butter in medium saucepan over medium-high heat. Add minced garlic; cook 2-3 minutes, or until lightly browned. Add flour, whisk in. Slowly add milk, whisking constantly. Add cream cheese and gorgonzola; heat 1-2 minutes - until cheese is melted. Bring to a boil; sauce will thicken. Remove from heat.
4. Toss together cooked pasta, vegetables and sauce. Top with parmesan cheese, salt and pepper (optional).

Asian Pork Tenderloin

Light and tasty! This is packed with flavor. You'll NEVER guess that you're eating healthy!

Prep time: 5 minutes

Cooking time: 45 minutes

Time Saving Tips: If time is a significant factor, use bottled, minced garlic and gingerroot. But, if you can take a couple minutes to mince them fresh, you'll get an even better taste. Also, before measuring honey and molasses, spray measuring spoon with cooking spray and they will just slide right out instead of sticking.

Makes: 6 servings

Ingredients

1 1/2 lbs pork tenderloin	1 teaspoon honey
1 teaspoon molasses	2 cloves garlic, minced
1 teaspoon minced fresh gingerroot	1 teaspoon light soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon sesame oil	1 teaspoon sesame seeds
2 teaspoons sliced green onions

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 425 degrees.
2. Remove all visible fat from pork; place in a shallow baking pan.
3. In a small bowl, whisk together remaining ingredients except sesame seeds and onions.
4. Brush honey mixture over pork; sprinkle with sesame seeds.
5. Bake uncovered for 45 minutes (or until meat thermometer reads 160 degrees F).
6. To serve, slice thinly and garnish with green onions.

Suggested Side Dishes

To complete a very healthy meal, add cooked brown rice (which is tastiest by cooking in chicken both instead of water and adding some seasonings like green onions, garlic and soy sauce) and steamed vegetables. A combination of broccoli, red pepper and mushrooms would be nice.

Raspberry-Glazed Grilled Chicken

Here's a great meal for a Friday night on the grill. You'll love the delicious glaze on these chicken breasts. Just make sure to plan for the hour marinating time required.

Prep time: 5 minutes, plus 1 hour to marinate

Cooking time: 15 minutes

Time Saving Tips: Because this recipe calls for an hour to marinate, it's important to plan on serving this chicken on a night that dinner doesn't need to be served right after getting home from work. If you pick a Friday night, put the marinade together, toss it in the fridge and have a little 'happy hour' until it's time to grill! Also use the marinating time to prepare your side dishes.

Makes: 4 servings

Ingredients

1/2 cup raspberry jam	2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar
2 tablespoons cilantro, chopped	1/4 teaspoon black pepper
1 pound boneless, skinless chicken breasts

Directions

1. Combine first four ingredients in a large ziploc bag; add chicken. Refrigerate one hour; turning chicken once.
2. Heat grill.
3. Remove chicken from marinade; reserve marinade. Place chicken on grill; during cooking, brush with marinade; cook 15-20 minutes (turning occasionally) or until chicken is cooked through.
4. If desired, heat remaining marinade to boiling, boil one minute and serve over chicken.

*Note: You can also use a broiler for this recipe.
